

1. What was / has been your occupation before entering politics?

I have been a Medical Microbiology Technician at the Ottawa Hospital for the last 15 years.

2. Do you live in the riding and, if so, how long has it been your home?

I do live in Kanata-Carleton I have live here for 12 years

3. What has been your main involvement with your community outside of work (volunteer activities, etc.)?

I am active with my son's sports, The Ottawa and District Labour Council and the Ottawa Area Council. I have also been involved with the Canadian Health Coalition and the Ontario Health Coalition.

4. In your life what event, or book, or speech, or song or even TV show has made the biggest impression on you and your political thinking? Why?

I have been inspired by Michelle Obama's book Becoming and Jagmeet Sing's Book Love and Courage.

5. What previous politician, (alive or dead, but not currently in parliament) is a role model for you?

I am inspired by Tommy Douglas and his drive for Pharmacare! I was also inspired by Jack Layton and his passion for people!

6. What policy in your party's platform do you think matters most to the people in your riding?

There are 2 that I have heard the most about in the riding, Affordable housing and Pharmacare. People are struggling to pay rent or mortgages and their medications, and I don't think people should have to choose.

7. Recent polls suggest many Canadians are disillusioned with politics. If elected, what would you do to address those concerns?

Open and Honest communications with constituents will be vital to Kanata-Carleton! We need to make sure both rural and suburban areas are taken care of, as they have different needs. I will have an open door policy and I understand if elected I am here to champion the causes of the constituents.
